ANNUAL FUND

Your Long Center Annual Fund support provides local performing artists and organizations with the facilities and services that foster excellence, encourage originality and promote collaboration. The Long Center nurtures and showcases the best in local artistic expression and connects diverse audiences to world-class artists. With your support, the Long Center may provide and promote outreach programs designed to engage our community through the performing arts.

PLEDGE YOUR SUPPORT TODAY FOR AUSTIN'S CREATIVE HOME!

Through the Long Center's Long Reach for the Arts program, your annual fund gift will underwrite the cost of tickets for children and families in our community. Your contribution provides outstanding entertainment, inspiration and the magic of live performance to even more members of our community, absolutely free of charge.

A gift to the Annual Fund supports the Long Center's ongoing "green" supply and maintenance expenses through our Long Green Future program. In a given year, these expenses may include our single stream recycling program; the purchase of energy-efficient lighting for offices and public spaces; biodegradable cleaning supplies; recycled and/or chlorine-free paper products; and remanufactured ink and toner cartridges. Help our environment by making your gift a part of Austin's future, today!

As Austin's Creative Home, our intent is to make the Long Center available to as many community artists as possible. Through the Redd Carpet Fund, named for long-time Austin arts advocate and Long Center Executive Director Emeritus, Cliff Redd, we underwrite specific expenses associated with mounting a production at the Long Center. Your gift helps locally-based arts organizations, by giving them a chance to perform and practice their craft in our state-of-the-art performance spaces.

With a gift of $125 or more, you will support the Long Center programs and receive these great benefits:

Advance ticket purchase opportunities, invitations to special events, recognition in our Long Center Presents programs, two cinema passes and discounted ticket offers when available.
