* FAIR MARKET VALUE

 The Long Center's founding resident companies (Austin Symphony Orchestra, Austin Lyric Opera, Ballet Austin) along with many other artists and arts organizations present their own performances at the Long Center, and manage their own ticketing process. Annually, the Long Center will host a number of performances from local, regional, and national artists and arts organizations, including Broadway shows. This self-presented series is called, "Long Center Presents." Complimentary tickets to Long Center Presents events are subject to availability and authorization from the artist or their management company.
